

Waqf Development and Innovation

Socio-Economic and Legal Perspectives

Edited by Syed Nazim Ali and Umar A. Oseni

WAQF DEVELOPMENT AND INNOVATION

Edited by Syed Nazim Ali and Umar A. Oseni

an informa business

ISBN 978-0-367-74472-4

90000

Routledge

WAQF DEVELOPMENT AND INNOVATION

Socio-Economic and Legal Perspectives

Edited by Syed Nazim Ali and Umar A. Oseni

CONTENTS

List of figures	viii
List of tables	ix
List of appendices	x
Contributors	xi
Acknowledgements	xx
Abbreviations	xxiii

PART I

Introduction

1 Waqf development and innovation: an introduction	3
Umar A. Oseni and Syed Nazim Ali

PART II

Development and innovation

2 The significance of waqf and the experience of charitable organizations in socio-economic development	13
Nasim Shah Shirazi
3 Waqf and human capital	27
Murat Çizakça
4 The activation of the waqf role in sustainable development	37
Abdelrahman Yousri

- 6 New frontiers for cash-waqf models for socio economic development
Magda Ismail Abdel Mohsin 63

- 7 The shariah recognition of cryptocurrencies and their usability for waqf
Abdulazeem Abozaid and Saqib Hafiz Khateeb 74

PART III

Legal and regulatory issues 95

- 8 The place of waqf in the general principles of trusts law
Ilias Bantekas 97

- 9 The impact of charitable trusts law on society
Nasser Al Taweel 113

- 10 The need for an effective legal and regulatory framework for cash waqf
Abdullahi Salihu Ishola and Umar A. Oseni 126

PART IV

Selected case studies 141

- 11 Awqaf properties and their development in Eastern Europe: the case of Bosnia and Herzegovina
Vélid Efendić, Alija Avdukić and Mensud Bisić 143

- 12 Waqf development in India
Mohammed Ali Shariff and Zainab Fida Ahsan 157

- 13 Waqf development in Indonesia: current landscape and future trends
Hidayatul Ihsan 180

- 14 Waqf in Iran: an overview of historical roots and current trends
Amin Mohseni-Cheraghloou, Ramezan Ali Marvi and Amir Kazemzadeh 192

- 16 Case studies of awqaf properties and their development in Morocco
Dalal Aassouli 226

- 17 Waqf development in Nigeria: issues and challenges
Abdulqadir Ibrahim Abikan and Abdullahi Salihu Ishola 238

- 18 Case studies of waqf in Pakistan
Muhammad Zubair Abbasi 256

Index

269

16.1 Application texts of the Awqaf Code	236
16.2 The divisions and departments of the Awqaf Directorate	237

Dalal AASSOULI is an Assistant Professor of Islamic finance and Program Coordinator at Hamad Bin Khalifa University (HBKU) in Qatar. She was previously a visiting academic at the Durham Centre for Islamic Economics and Finance, Durham University Business School. Previously, she worked at the International Islamic Liquidity Management Corporation (IILM) in Malaysia where she assisted with the establishment of the IILM's sukuk programme. Before that, she held several positions in leading corporates of Europe where she had exposure to the African, European and Latin American markets. Her areas of research interest include Islamic finance in general and its implications for corporate finance, ethical finance, development finance, green finance, sustainable development and socially responsible investing.

Muhammad Zubair ABBASI is an Associate Professor, Lahore University of Management Sciences, Lahore, Pakistan. He is a practising lawyer and legal historian by training that he received in classical Islamic law (fiqh) and common law at International Islamic University Islamabad and University of Oxford. Abbasi's research focuses on the relationship between shari'a and state law in South Asia, Middle East and Western Europe. Other areas of his research include Islamic law and jurisprudence (uṣūl al-fiqh) in contemporary world, comparative law, family law, and constitutional law. His current research explores the process of the incorporation of Islam into the legal system of Pakistan. Abbasi has published in the areas of Islamic family law, Islamic legal history and Islamic constitutionalism. He is the Chief Editor of the LUMS Law Journal and South Asia Editor for the Harvard Law School's SHARIA source.

Sharifah Zubaidah Syed ABDUL-KADER is Associate Professor at the Civil Law Department of Ahmad Ibrahim Kulliyah of Laws, International Islamic University economy by essentializing sharing and the collaborative economy nature of Islamic finance.

Ilias BANTEKAS is Professor of Transnational Law at Hamad bin Khalifa University (Qatar Foundation), College of Law and Adjunct Professor at Georgetown University, Edmund E. Walsh School of Foreign Service. He serves as consultant to several international organizations and is regularly appointed arbitrator in international commercial disputes. He has written close to 170 articles and 19 books. Key books include: International Human Rights Law and Practice (2020, with L Oette); Introduction to International Arbitration (2015); International Law (2021, with E. Papastavridis); Sovereign Debt and Human Rights (2018, with C. Lumina); Commentary on the UN Disabilities Convention (2018, with M. A. Stein and D. Anastasiou); Islamic Contract Law (2022, with I. Ullah, U. Oseni, J. Ercanbrack); Qatari Contract Law (2022, with A. Al-Ahmed).

Mensud BISİC currently works at ATOM Bright Solutions Company, headquartered in Jeddah, KSA, as Chief Operations Officer. He is an experienced manager with proven skills in negotiation, business planning, analytics, crisis management, human resource management, team building and market research. He is a Business Development Professional with a Master's degree in Management, Islamic Banking and Finance Study Group. Mensud completed his BA (2008) at Imam Muhammad University, Riyadh, KSA. His research is related to the Islamic Moral Economy. He assessed the potential of the waqf system in Bosnia and Herzegovina, as a part of a comprehensive ethical system, based on socially oriented principles, to secure sustainable development, social justice, and enhance human wellbeing. He is interested to use his management experience, and his knowledge about project management key concepts, to enhance the overall efficiency of the waqf system, as a model of modern potent social entrepreneurship.

Murat ÇİZAKÇA is a professor of comparative economic and financial history as well as Islamic economics at the KTO Karatay University in Konya, Turkey. He received his BA degree from the University of Leicester and his PhD from the University of Pennsylvania. After retiring from Bogazici University in Istanbul, he taught at the University of Luxembourg, the Ludwig Maximilian's University in Munich and at INCEIF University in Kuala Lumpur. He is a former fellow of Wissenschaftskolleg zu Berlin, Institut d'Etudes Avancées de Nantes, and Istituto di Storia Economica (Datiini), Prato. In 2016 he was awarded membership of Academia Europaea and European Science Foundation.

Fares DJAFRI is currently a researcher at the International Shari'ah Research Academy for Islamic Finance (ISRA), Kuala Lumpur. Prior to that, he was the Executive Director of the International Bureau for Consultancy at the Academy

International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM), and PhD in Islamic Finance from University of Malaya (UM). His areas of research include Islamic finance, Islamic insurance (Takaful) and governance. He has published in refereed journals and presented several papers at local and international conferences.

Velid EFENDIĆ is an Associate Professor at the School of Economics and Business (SEBS) of the University of Sarajevo in the field of Finance, Banking. With over 13 years of experience in teaching at university level, Efendic was a mentor on tens of undergraduate and master's theses in the field of Banking and Islamic Banking and Finance. Besides academic experiences, Efendic was actively involved in the establishment and organization of Banking Academy SEBS (and appointed as a first director), as well as the Center for Islamic Economics Banking and Finance, where he serves as a deputy head of the Centre. From 2013, he was appointed as the head of the international joint degree MA program "Islamic Banking" which the SEBS organized in collaboration with the University of Bolton. In early 2017, Efendic was appointed for the mandate of five year as a Management Board member in the Banking Agency of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina (FBiH). Efendic passed away after fighting serious illness on 14 February 2021 at the age of 40. May God bless his soul.

Hidayatul IHSAN is a lecturer in Islamic Accounting at the Padang State Polytechnic. He is also the postgraduate coordinator of the Applied Master in Accounting Information System at the same institution. His main research interests are in waqf accounting, management and governance. He has published numerous papers on waqf accounting and management in various academic journals and book chapters. He has also presented his research at many seminars and conferences globally. He used to serve as the member of the Indonesian Waqf Board, chapter West Sumatra, Indonesia. Currently, he is member of the Shariah Accountant Compartment, the Institute of Indonesia Chartered Accountants.

Abdullahi Saliu ISHOLA is currently working as a lecturer, Kwara State University, Malete. He obtained his PhD (Law) from International Islamic University Malaysia and his Bachelor and Master's degrees (LLB (Shari'ah and Common Law) and LLM (Islamic Law)) from the University of Ilorin. He is also a registered teacher and a barrister and solicitor of the Supreme Court of Nigeria. He has many publications in peer-reviewed and high-impact journals and chapters in books. He has also received many academic awards. He consults for several financial institutions in Nigeria, especially Islamic cooperative societies. He is the founder of many notable institutions in Nigeria, such as Tawakkul Cooperative Society Ltd and Al-Husnah Centre for Waqf Affairs (ACWA). He has attended and presented papers at several conferences in Africa, Asia and the United States. His core area of research interest is Islamic Charities and Endowment Law and Practices (Waqf Laws and Practices).